

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

30 October 1973.

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

I had very much looked forward to attending your National Day Celebration on Nov. 1. Unfortunately my duties will require me to be out of Washington on that day. But I shall be thinking of the gallant people of your country as Thursday. I very much regret my inability to be with you.

With Every good Wish
Faithfully,
Kear & Walters
